In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

The Esteemed Honorable Brother Abdulaziz Al-Saleh May Allah preserve him Peace, mercy, and blessings of Allah be upon you:

Please find enclosed a copy of the receipt for the check sent from the Embassy to assist in furnishing Masjid Al-Madinah Al-Munawarah. For your esteemed notice, at the very moment I received your esteemed letter along with the check, the administration of the Community were holding a meeting. They took receipt of the check and signed the acknowledgement of receipt. Indeed this made a good impression, which is no surprise coming from devoted people like yourself.

Also, please find enclosed the letter from the Pakistani community, who sponsor the Iftar [meals to break the fast] for more than 400 people every Friday and Saturday during the month of Ramadan . . You have painted a good picture by contributing to some of the prizes presented to the children of the Muslim community for memorization and recitation of the Holy Qur'an. I would be remiss not to enclose their letter, in which the state their wish to upgrade some individual prayer rugs, as well as to get some headscarves [Hijab] for the girls. Here they are sold for about 15 dollars each. Also, they want The Holy Qur'an tape set, as well as pocket-sized copies of the Qur'an, for the number of people mentioned in their letter. My only wish is that Allah may always reward you for doing Al-Khairat [goodness aplenty]. May Allah preserve you and look after you.

Your brother [Signed]

Omar bin Ahmad Al-Bayoumi
